1. The proposed division of labor between Communist-backed groups and the Catholic-sponsored League of Nazareth Workers has not been carried out. The Israeli authorities in Nazareth acknowledged the League on 23 December 1948 and at the same time gave it a permit to open an employment office, but did not agree to apportion government-sponsored work to the new group. The Military Governor, Elisha Sultz (formerly reported as Elisha), is still giving work only to members of the leftist Arab Trade Union Congress. [REDACTED] Sultz is a member of the Mapam Party and the former is of the opinion that, as such, Sultz is loyal to, and carries out, Mapam labor policies and tactics laid down in Tel Aviv by the Israeli Minister of Labor, Mordechai Bentov.
2. The Histadruth, Mapai-controlled General Federation of Jewish Labor, thus far has refused to take part in any government employment office in Nazareth. Rather than become involved in the fight for labor control, the Histadruth has initiated its own program to counteract communist influence in Galilee. It has done this by obtaining contracts for labor in northern Galilee and then recruiting laborers in Nazareth to work on these jobs. [REDACTED] so far, two hundred and fifty Nazareth workers have gone to work for the Histadruth, and he reports in this connection that the Histadruth has agreed that 25 percent of its workers will be drawn from members of the League of Nazareth Workers.
3. Aba Chuschi, Mapai leader in the Nazareth area, [REDACTED] program being followed by the Histadruth is meeting with success, and that the Histadruth has been able to drive out Communist workers from many places in northern Israel. The Histadruth, according to [REDACTED] already has replaced the Arab Trade Union Congress in Beisan and is about to do so in Lydda and Ramlah.
